

Name of Program	Graduate Program in Family Therapy Diploma/Masters	Graduate Diploma in Systemic Therapy	Graduate Certificate in Clinical Supervision and Consultation (Subject to Higher Education accreditation)	Master of Arts in Couple and Family Therapy (Subject to Higher Education accreditation)	1. Bachelor of Counselling 2. Master of Counselling
Auspice	New South Wales Institute of Psychiatry	Relationships Australia (NSW) Australian Institute of Relationship Studies (AIRS)	Relationships Australia (NSW) Australian Institute of Relationship Studies (AIRS)	University of NSW, School of Social Work in partnership with Relationships Australia (NSW)	University of New England
Length (if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)	2 or 3-year course Combination of on-campus and distance education units	1 year (1 day per week)	90-hour course One day per week over 15 weeks with the final unit attendance to be negotiated with individual students	2 years part-time	BC (1.5 years FT/3 years PT) MC (2 years FT/5 years PT)
Entrance Requirements	For psychologists, social workers, counsellors, medical practitioners, nurses, occupational therapists and other health professionals.	Advanced Diploma (or equivalent). 100 hours of counselling experience. Prerequisite counselling courses (or equivalent).	This course is designed for experienced practitioners in the counselling, health and related areas.	This course is designed for experienced practitioners in the counselling, health and related areas.	Selection via written application and selection weekend. BC requires first degree + 1 year practice or equivalent MC requires BC/Grad Dip. Couns (or equivalent) + 3 years practice.
Qualification/Certification	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy (2 years) or Masters in Family Therapy (3 years)	Graduate Diploma in Systemic Therapy, specialising in Couple or Family Therapy	Graduate Certificate in Clinical Supervision and Consultation (Subject to Higher Education accreditation)	Undergraduate degree. Training and 2 years experience in counselling	Bachelor/Master of Counselling
Cost	Single units: approx. $800.00 each (2005 costs to be determined). 4 units per year	$8,740	$3,750	$15,120 ($3,780 each university semester). HECS places usually available for students whose income is below $55,000	BC: HECS; $500 per 6 credit point unit MC: Full fee; $990 per 6 credit point unit
Key Teaching Staff	Brian Cade, Glen Lerner, Ron Perry, Christine Senediak	Gisela Adams, Nese Sozen, Kellie Dargan	Kerrie James and Elisabeth Shaw	Carmel Flaskas (UNSW); Kerrie James, Relationships Australia (NSW)	Ann Moir-Bussy
Special Features	Year 1: overview of the history of family therapy theory and practice, archival videotapes of pioneers Year 2: development of therapy skills; supervision of participants' clinical work Year 3: Masters option involves the choice of research or clinical stream	Theoretical seminars and skills development. Integration of a range of systemic models. Incorporates 20 weeks of live supervision of clients utilising a Post Milan team approach.	This course aims to equip participants with a comprehensive framework for the supervision and clinical management of counselling professionals and other front line practitioners. It draws on systems theory, adult education, management and feminist frameworks and offers practical skills that are grounded in theory.	Clinical Studies subjects taught in small groups using live supervision. Strong emphasis on the use of self and professional development, and an encouragement of critical thinking in the study of family therapy theory and narrative and post-Milan ideas. Meets PACFA training requirements.	These units are electives in BC and MC courses, representing 18/72 credit points required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Systems Theory (6 credit points).</li> <li>• Relationship Counselling (Skills unit: 12 credit points).</li> <li>• These units can be completed in 1 semester.</li> <li>• Our courses combine distance education and intensive residential schools.</li> </ul>
Are other learning opportunities provided? (e.g., workshops)	The NSW Institute of Psychiatry also offers award and non-award courses in Mental Health (Infant, Child, Adolescent and Adult), Aged Care, and Continual Professional Development; and courses for medical practitioners, and community carers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Diploma in Counselling and Group Work</li> <li>• Nationally accredited (offered in both the Sydney and Hunter regions).</li> <li>• Graduate Certificate in Mediation (Subject to Higher Education accreditation).</li> <li>• Graduate Certificate in Clinical Supervision and Consultation (Subject to Higher Education accreditation).</li> <li>• Psychologist Registration Program.</li> <li>• Clinical Internship placements.</li> <li>• Specialist training programs customised for specific workplaces.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Diploma in Counselling and Group Work (offered in both the Sydney and Hunter Regions) Nationally accredited</li> <li>• Graduate Certificate of Mediation (Subject to Higher Education accreditation)</li> <li>• Psychologist Registration Program</li> <li>• Clinical Internship placements</li> <li>• Specialist training programs customised for specific workplaces.</li> </ul>	The course blends the small group practice learning environment with participative seminar formats for the theory subjects.	Research degrees MC (Hons) and PhD are available. Supervision is available in relationship and family therapy topics.
Enquiries	Contact www.nswiop.nsw.edu.au Tel: (02) 9840 3833, Fax: + 61 2 9840 3838; Email: institute@nswiop.nsw.edu.au	Jacqueline Hackett Ph: + 61 2 9806 3288 Website: www.relationships.com.au Email: airs@matra.com.au	Contact: www.relationships.com.au Ph: 61 2 9806 3288 Email: airs@matra.com.au	Carmel Flaskas Ph + 61 2 9385 1960 Email: c.flaskas@unsw.edu.au Note: 2 yearly intake; next intake for 2006 academic year.	Website: http://fehps.unsw.edu.au/Health/ Ph: (02) 6773 3664/3674 Email: fehps@pobox.unsw.edu.au

Victoria

Name of Program	Diploma of Family Therapy	Advanced Diploma of Applied Systems and Family Therapy	Diploma in Family Therapy (Clinical Practice)	Specialist Course in Couple Therapy
Auspice	Alma Family Therapy Centre	Systems Co-Ordinators Pty. Ltd Centre for Systems and Family Therapy Training	Gilead Downs Family Therapy Centre	Relationships Australia 46 Princess Street, Kew VIC 3101
Length <small>(if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)</small>	The program is offered in 8 units, over 2 years, Each unit is 8 weeks and 32 hours duration A. Overview of Family Therapy B. Developmental experiences: therapeutic interactions C. Illness D. Family of Origin E. Children and adolescents F. Couples G. Older adults H. Ethics, Research, Closure and Referral.	City Courses: 4 hours per week. Country Course: 1 full day per month (Wangaratta). Client contact utilising Systems and Family Therapy concepts, further reading, supervision and attendance at approved workshop(s).	Two-year course, held every second month on a Friday and Saturday (6 times per year)	Bi-annual beginning February and July 2005. Weekly (20 sessions), Tuesdays, 9.00 am–3.00 p.m.
Entrance Requirements	Health professionals	Tertiary qualifications in relevant disciplines, working in a context which will utilise systems techniques. Provision for unqualified/experienced practitioner-RPL.	Recognised tertiary qualification. RPL granted.	Appropriate tertiary qualification; significant face-to-face counselling experience.
Qualification/Certification	Certificate of Completion for each unit completed satisfactorily. Diploma of Family Therapy on satisfactory completion of course. VAFT accreditation.	An Advanced Training in Applied Systems Theory and Family Therapy.	Graduate Diploma	Upon completion, all participants receive a Certificate of Training. Credit for 2 units towards La Trobe University Master of Counselling and Human Services; 3/8th of Master Clin.S.W. Univ. Melbourne.
Cost	$3600 + GST or $1100+GST per individual unit weekly attendance; $3000 + GST per year or $850 +GST per individual unit distance education	Year 1: $2420.00 Year 2: $2420.00	$2310 per year (including GST)	Assessed: $2365.00 (incl. GST), Formally Assessed: $2695.00 (incl. GST). Installment options available.
Key Teaching Staff	Miriam Tisher, Livia Jackson, and guest lecturers	Claire Miran-Khan	Harvey Miller, Peter Cantwell	Penny Evans, Carol Ride, Linda Halley, Lily Rosenberg, Karen Weiss, Ian Gray, Margot Rogers, Ingrid Sturme
Special Features	1. Flexible learning. Units can be taken individually after completion of Units A & B or as full course 2. Weekly attendance or distance learning.	Advanced Theory: overview of all major schools and scientific metaphors utilised by the field of Family Therapy. Considerable exposure to the work of Bateson & Maturana. Case presentations. Video interviews of the 'Masters' in the field. Practice sessions of techniques. Development of individual model. Practice &amp; Supervision through casework presentation. 'Reflective Journal' to clarify theory and practice link.	Strong emphasis on integrating theory with clinical practice, including live clinical observation using a one-way screen.	Integration of psychodynamic, systemic and behavioural theories. Theory and practice seminars, skills development, video viewing; case discussion & application; therapeutic self workshops. Prescribed reading material (supplied).
Are other learning opportunities provided? <small>(e.g., workshops)</small>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Workshops, activities and readings, role-play, video work</li> <li>Supervision</li> </ul>	Professional Library is available. Guest facilitators. Workshops provided or recommended.	Clinical Workshops, Supervision.	Post-course options: internship; group supervision/study program; video viewing program.
Enquiries	Livia Jackson or Miriam Tisher Ph: +61 3 9500 2411 Fax: +61 3 9500 2840 Email: alma@almfamilytherapy.com	Claire Miran-Khan or Khayyam Miran-Khan Ph: +61 3 9754 6913 Fax: +61 3 9754 4990 Email: syscord@connexus.net.au or Email: clairemirankhan@connexus.com.au	Phone: + 61 3 5633 2482 Fax: + 61 3 5633 2964 Email: GileadDowns@m150.aone.net.au	Pam Harris, Professional Education Administration Ph + 3 9261 8702 Email: training@rav.org.au Website: www.relationships.com.au

Name of Program	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy, Melbourne	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy, Geelong	Graduate Certificate in Family Therapy Supervision, Consultation and Training	Postgraduate Diploma in Family Therapy Systemic–Narrative
Auspice	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre & Swinburne University of Technology	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre & Swinburne University of Technology	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University
Length <small>(if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)</small>	2 years part-time Total 328 hours including 60 hours of live supervision	2 years part time Total 328 hours including 60 hours of live supervision	1 year, 6 hours per week; two 13-week semesters	2 years, 1 day per week; two 13-week semesters per year
Entrance Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Appropriate tertiary qualification</li> <li>• Currently working with clients</li> <li>• Attendance at selection interview and the Introductory 4-Day workshop</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Appropriate tertiary qualification</li> <li>• Currently working with clients</li> <li>• Attendance at a selection interview and the Introductory 4-Day workshop</li> </ul>	Eligibility for VAFT clinical membership	Relevant health and welfare degree and appropriate clinical experience
Qualification/Certification	Graduate Diploma of Social Science in Family Therapy	Graduate Diploma of Social Science in Family Therapy	Graduate Certificate in Family Therapy Supervision, Consultation and Training	Postgraduate Diploma in Family Therapy
Cost	$595 Introductory 4-Day workshop $3,564 Year 1 $3,564 Year 2 (as at Jan 2004, inc. GST, PELS available)	$595 Introductory 4-Day workshop $3,564 Year 1 $3,564 Year 2 (as at Jan 2004, inc. GST, PELS available)	$4,200	$8,400
Key Teaching Staff	Moshe Lang, Sophie Holmes, Kim Bieber, Peter Cantwell, Giselle Solinski, Edwin Harari, Miriam Tisher	Sophie Holmes, Kim Bieber, Peter O'Keefe, Peter Cantwell, Moshe Lang, Bernie Jenner	Banu Moloney Amaryll Perlesz	Greg U'Ren, Ron Findlay, Banu Moloney, Karen Sutherland, Robyn Elliott (plus experienced Bouverie Staff clinical supervisors)
Special Features	All major schools covered with focus on participants developing their own style. Addresses group process and personal family of origin work. Participants organised in teams. Live supervision uses multiple reflecting process. 'Issues of interagency collaboration' is offered as part of the course.	Covers all major schools of family therapy. Addresses group process and personal family of origin work. Focuses on developing participants' own style of work with clients. Live supervision using a multiple reflecting teams process. Working in a rural community and interagency collaboration are covered in detail.	First formalised training in family therapy supervision in Australia	Four hours live supervision. Advanced family therapy theory and introduction to research, specialisation in either narrative or systemic/integrative approaches
Are other learning opportunities provided? <small>(e.g., workshops)</small>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Short Courses in Marital Therapy</li> <li>• Transcultural Family Therapy</li> <li>• Advanced Supervision</li> <li>• Practicum placement 6 months: 1 year for Clinical Psychologists, Counselling Psychologists, and Educational and Developmental Psychologists</li> </ul>	Training is offered at 3 levels 1. Introduction to Systemic Theory and Practice 2. Two Year Training in Family Therapy 3. Advanced Supervision in Family Therapy. Where possible the course also offers optional workshops on subjects of special interest.	Live supervision of supervision	Workshops and seminars
Enquiries	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre: Ph: +61 3 9530 2311; Fax: +61 3 9529 4469 Email: info@williamsroad.vic.edu.au Website: www.williamsroad.vic.edu.au Director of Training: Sophie Holmes Co-ordinators: Peter Cantwell and Kim Bieber	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre: Ph: +61 3 9530 2311; Fax: +61 3 9529 4469 Email: info@williamsroad.vic.edu.au Website: www.williamsroad.vic.edu.au Director of Training: Sophie Holmes Co-ordinator: Kim Bieber	Banu Moloney Ph: +61 3 9376 9844	Banu Moloney, Coordinator Ph: +61 3 9376 9844 Email: B.Moloney@latrobe.edu.au

	Queensland		Western Australia	South Australia
Name of Program	Master of Couple and Family Therapy by full course work OR with minor thesis	Graduate Certificate in Family Sensitive Practice	Graduate Diploma of Mental Health (Family Therapy)	William Street Family Therapy Centre Family & Marital Therapy Course	Professional Practice Certificate in Individual Couple and Family Therapy and Professional Practice Diploma in Individual Couple and Family Therapy
Auspice	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University	The University of Queensland, School of Medicine	William Street Family Therapy Centre, 544 William Street, Mt Lawley WA 6050	Bower Place
Length <small>(if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)</small>	2 years part time	1 year, 6 hours per week; two 13-week semesters	2-year part-time	2 year course: Stage 1 Introduction to Family Therapy (40 wks at 5hrs/wk) Stage 2 Advanced Training (40 wks at 5hrs/wk) 1 week intensive training in Family & Marital Therapy, Level 1 Course held twice per year, and Level 2 Course held once per year	1 to 2 year course located within the Bower Place Low Fee Clinic
Entrance Requirements	Postgraduate Diploma in Family Therapy or equivalent	Undergraduate degree, diploma or equivalent experience	Recognised health profession degree or equivalent, at least 2 years experience of clinical practice and be working in a practice environment that is suitable for family therapy	Completion of basic training in the helping professions	For psychologists, social workers, counsellors, medical practitioners, nurses, occupational therapists and other health professionals
Qualification/Certification	Master of Couple and Family Therapy	Graduate Certificate in Family Sensitive Practice	Graduate Diploma of Mental Health (Family Therapy)	Certificate of completion of each stage of course	Professional Practice Certificate in Individual Couple and Family Therapy (1 year) and Professional Practice Diploma in Individual Couple and Family Therapy (2 years)
Cost	Full fee course — cost TBA	$4,200	Full cost $9,600. PELS support available	$2,450 Plus GST each year of 2 year course $600 plus GST for each 1 week Intensive course	Year 1 — Part 1 (10 week lecture series) $750 Year 1 — Part 1 & 2 $2,750 Year 2 $3,000
Key Teaching Staff	Amaryll Perlesz, Banu Moloney, Jenny Dwyer, Robyn Elliott	Jenny Dwyer, Robyn Miller, Banu Moloney	Robert King, Chris Hunt, Graham Martin, Sally Young, Paul Gibney, Peta Briner	Aldo Gurgone, Anne Holloway, Steve Lionello, Jene Moody, Teena Olsen, Rosemary Watkins	Catherine Sanders, Malcolm Robinson, Marten Johns
Special Features	Couples therapy training Supervision of supervision Qualitative research methods	Exploration of Family of Origin and workplace influences	This program is recognised by Queensland Association for Family Therapy as a qualification leading to Clinical Membership.	Combination of basic systems theory, and live supervision to implement theory in practice	Year 1: 10 week introductory lecture series explicates the Bower Place method and key schools of family therapy. 30 week Practicum using the one-way screen, observing therapists Catherine Sanders and Malcolm Robinson. Six Skill Development Workshops. Year 2: opportunity to develop clinical skills working directly with clients of the Low Fee Clinic. Students also develop supervision skills with those in the first year of the course. Individually negotiated block placements for advanced local and interstate practitioners.
Are other learning opportunities provided? <small>(e.g., workshops)</small>	Workshops and colloquia Guest speakers	Workshops and seminars Extensive skills development through experiential exercises	Workshops form the major training component in year 2. Live supervision in year 1.	Some workshops provided	Students are often involved in research in association with the Dept. of Psychology, Adelaide University. Access to the library of videotapes collected since 1981 allows students to pursue particular areas of interest.
Enquiries	Amaryll Perlesz, Coordinator Ph: +61 3 9376 9844 Email: A.Perlesz@latrobe.edu.au	Jenny Dwyer (Coordinator) Ph: +61 3 9376 9844 Email: Jenny.Dwyer@latrobe.edu.au	Further Information: Judith Langton Ph: +61 7 3365 5143 Website: www.uq.edu.au	Aldo Gurgone Ph: +61 9 227 8038 Fax: +61 9 227 8938	Contact us at www.bowerplace.com.au Tel: (08) 82216066 Fax: (08) 82216061 Email: catherine@bowerplace.com.au

