

Name of Program	Master of Arts in Couple and Family Therapy	Graduate Certificate in Clinical Supervision and Consultation	Graduate Program in Family Therapy	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy, Melbourne	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy, Geelong
Auspice	University of NSW, School of Social Work, in partnership with Relationships Australia (NSW)	Relationships Australia (NSW) Australian Institute of Relationship Studies (AIRS)	New South Wales Institute of Psychiatry	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre and Swinburne University of Technology	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre & Swinburne University of Technology
Length (if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)	2 years part-time Next intake for 2006 academic year	90-hour course. One day per week over 15 weeks; final unit attendance to be negotiated with individual students	2 or 3-year course Combination of on-campus and distance education units	2 years part-time Total 328 hours including 60 hours of live supervision	2 years part-time; 328 hours including 60 hours of live supervision
Entrance Requirements	Undergraduate degree. Training and 2 years experience in counselling, health and related areas.	Experienced practitioners in the counselling, health or related areas.	For psychologists, social workers, counsellors, medical practitioners, nurses, occupational therapists and other health professionals.	Appropriate tertiary qualification. Currently working with clients. Attendance at selection interview and the Introductory 4-Day workshop	Appropriate tertiary qualification; currently working with clients; attendance at a selection interview and the introductory 4-day workshop
Qualification/Certification	Master of Arts in Couple and Family Therapy.	Graduate Certificate in Clinical Supervision and Consultation	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy (2 years) or Masters in Family Therapy (3 years)	Graduate Diploma of Social Science in Family Therapy	Graduate Diploma of Social Science in Family Therapy
Cost	2006–2007 fees to be advised.	$3930	Single units: approx. $900 each (2006 costs to be determined). 4 units per year	$595 Introductory 4-Day workshop $4000 (inc. GST) Year 1 $4000 (inc. GST) Year 2 (as at Jan 2005, plus General Service Fee, PELS available)	$595 Introductory 4-Day workshop $4000 (inc. GST) Year 1 $4000 (inc. GST) Year 2 (as at Jan 2005, plus General Service Fee, PELS available)
Key Teaching Staff	Carmel Flaskas (UNSW); Pamela Lewis, Relationships Australia (NSW)	Elisabeth Shaw and Pam Lewis	Brian Cade, Glen Lerner, Ron Perry, Christine Senediak	Moshe Lang, Sophie Holmes, Kim Bieber, Peter Cantwell, Giselle Solinski, Edwin Harari, Miriam Tisher	Sophie Holmes, Kim Bieber, Peter O'Keefe, Peter Cantwell, Moshe Lang, Bernie Jenner
Special Features	Clinical Studies courses taught in small groups using live supervision. Strong emphasis on the use of self, professional development, and an encouragement of critical thinking in the study of family therapy theory, narrative and post-Milan theory. Meets PACFA training requirements. The small group practice learning environment is blended with participative seminar formats for the theory.	A comprehensive framework for the supervision and clinical management of counselling professionals and other front-line practitioners drawing on systems theory, adult education, management and feminist frameworks and offering practical skills, grounded in theory.	Year 1: overview of the history of family therapy history, theory and practice, with opportunities to see many of the pioneers on videotape Year 2: therapy skills development and supervision of clinical work Year 3: (Masters option): either research or clinical stream	All major schools covered with focus on group process, personal family of origin, and participants developing their own style. Participants organised in teams. Live supervision uses multiple reflecting process. 'Issues of interagency collaboration' is offered as part of the course.	Covers all major schools of family therapy, group process and personal family of origin work, and developing participants' own style. Live supervision using a multiple reflecting teams process. Working in a rural community and interagency collaboration are covered in detail.
Are other learning opportunities provided? (e.g., workshops)		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Diploma in Counselling and Group Work (offered in both the Sydney and Illawarra Regions) Nationally accredited Graduate Certificate of Mediation Graduate Diploma of Systemic Therapy Psychologist Registration Program Clinical Internship placements Specialist training programs customised for specific workplaces. 	Award and non-Award Mental Health courses: Adolescent, Adult, Aged Care, Infant, Child and Adolescent Mental Health, for medical practitioners, community carers; and a wide range of Continual Professional Development courses.	Short Courses in Marital Therapy; Transcultural Family Therapy; Advanced Supervision; Practicum placement 6 months: 1 year for Psychologists (Clinical, Counselling, Educational and Developmental)	Training is offered at 3 levels: Introduction to Systemic Theory and Practice; Two Year Training in Family Therapy; Where possible the course also offers optional workshops on subjects of special interest.
Enquiries	Carmel Flaskas Ph: + 61 2 9385 1960 Email: c.flaskas@unsw.edu.au	Contact: www.relationships.com.au Ph: 61 2 9806 3288 Email: airs@matra.com.au	Contact www.nswiop.nsw.edu.au Ph: (02) 9840 3833, Fax: + 61 2 9840 3838; Email: institute@nswiop.nsw.edu.au	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre Ph: +61 3 9530 2311; Fax: +61 3 9529 4469 Email: info@williamsroad.vic.edu.au Website: www.williamsroad.vic.edu.au Director of Training: Sophie Holmes Co-ordinators: Peter Cantwell and Kim Bieber	Williams Road Family Therapy Centre Ph: +61 3 9530 2311; Fax: +61 3 9529 4469 Email: info@williamsroad.vic.edu.au Website: www.williamsroad.vic.edu.au Director of Training: Sophie Holmes Co-ordinator: Kim Bieber

Name of Program	Specialist Course in Couple Therapy	Diploma of Family Therapy	Graduate Certificate in Family Sensitive Practice	Graduate Certificate of Family Therapy in Psychiatry	Master of Couple and Relationship Counselling by full course work OR with minor thesis
Auspice	Relationships Australia 46 Princess Street, Kew VIC 3101	Alma Family Therapy Centre	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University and Relationships Australia Victoria
Length (if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)	Bi-annual beginning February and July 2006. Weekly (20 sessions), Tuesdays, 9.00 am–3.00 p.m.	8 units, over 2 years. Each unit is 8 weeks and 32 hours duration	1 year, 6 hours per week; two 13-week semesters	2 years, 3.5 hours per week; four 13-week semesters	2 years part time
Entrance Requirements	Appropriate tertiary qualification; significant face-to-face counselling experience.	Health professionals	Undergraduate degree in any field but preferably in counselling, health, welfare or equivalent. Preference to applicants currently in work contexts that have direct involvement with families	Psychiatrists and qualified medical practitioners	Relevant undergraduate degree and appropriate work experience
Qualification/ Certification	Upon completion, all participants receive a Certificate of Training. Credit for 2 units towards Master of Couple & Relationship Counselling with Bouverie Centre & RAV; 2 units towards Master of Counselling and Human Services at La Trobe University ; 3/8th of Master Clin.S.W. Univ. Melbourne.	Certificate of Completion for each unit completed satisfactorily. Diploma of Family Therapy on satisfactory completion of course. VAFT accreditation.	Graduate Certificate in Family Sensitive Practice	Graduate Certificate of Family Therapy in Psychiatry	Master of Couple and Relationship Counselling
Cost	Assessed: $2475 (incl. GST), Formally Assessed: $2825 (incl. GST). (Costs subject to change). Materials $99. Instalment options available.	$3800 + GST or $1150 + GST per individual unit weekly attendance; $3200 + GST per year or $900 + GST per individual unit distance education	$4200	$4200	Prices vary per subject and version. For further details refer to contacts below
Key Teaching Staff	Penny Evans, Carol Ride, Linda Halley, Lily Rosenberg, Karen Weiss, Ian Gray, Margot Rogers, Ingrid Sturme	Miriam Tisher, Livia Jackson, and guest lecturers	Nicky Maheras, Franca Butera-Prinzi, Kitty Vivekananda	Colin Riess & Ron Findlay	Amaryll Perlesz, Banu Moloney, Jenny Dwyer, Robyn Elliott at Bouverie; see Specialist Course in Couple Therapy for RAV components
Special Features	Integration of psychodynamic, systemic and behavioural theories. Theory and practice semi- nars, skills development, video viewing; case discussion and application; therapeutic self workshops. Prescribed reading material (supplied).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Flexible learning. Units can be taken individually after completion of Units A and B or as full course • Weekly attendance or distance learning. 	Exploration of Family of Origin and workplace influences	Opportunities for Clinical Supervision. Focus on specific clinical skill development in assessment and therapeutic processes.	4 versions (A, B, C, D), variations of: Clinical Internship; Specialist Course in Couple Therapy; Supervision in Systemic Therapy; Working Systemically with Trauma & Sexual Abuse; Postmodern Family Formation; Recent Developments in Couple & Family Therapy; Qualitative Research Methods; Minor Thesis
Are other learning opportunities provided? (e.g., workshops)	Post-course options: internship; group supervision/study program; video viewing program.	Workshops, activities and readings, role-play, video work Supervision	Extensive skills development through experiential exercises	Opportunities to explore a range of clinical populations and presenting issues.	Workshops and colloquia Guest speakers
Enquiries	Pam Harris, Professional Education Administration Ph: + 61 3 9261 8702 Email: training@rav.org.au Website: www.relationships.com.au	Livia Jackson or Miriam Tisher Ph: +61 3 9500 2411 Fax: +61 3 9500 2840 Email: alma@almfamilytherapy.com	Nicky Maheras (Coordinator) Ph: +61 3 9376 9844 Email: n.maheras@latrobe.edu.au	Colin Riess (Coordinator) Ph: +61 3 9376 9844 Email: c.riess@latrobe.edu.au	The Bouverie Centre. Banu Moloney, Coordinator Susan Conduit, Admin. Ph: +61 3 9376 9844; Email: b.moloney@latrobe.edu.au, s.conduit@latrobe.edu.au, www.latrobe.edu.au/bouverie Relationships Australia Vic. Penny Evans, Co-ordinator; Pam Harris, Administration; Ph: + 61 3 9261 8702; Email: training@rav.org.au; www.relationships.com.au

Name of Program	Graduate Certificate in Systemic Supervision, Consultation and Training	Master of Clinical Family Therapy	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy (Clinical Practice)	Advanced Training in Applied Systems Theory and Family Therapy	1. Faculty Certificate in Arts, Family Centred Practice 2. Graduate Diploma in Family Centred Practice 3. Master of Family Centred Practice (subject to approval)
Auspice	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences	The Bouverie Centre, Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University	Gilead Downs Family Therapy Centre	Systems Co-Ordinators Pty Ltd Blackburn South	Monash University in partnership with Barbara Fraser & Associates
Length <small>(if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)</small>	1 year, 6 hours per week; two 13-week semesters	2 years, 1 day per week; two 13-week semesters per year	2 year part-time course; 6 weekends per year (Friday and Saturday)	City Courses: 4 hours per week. Country Course: 1 full day per month (Wangaratta).	1. 1 year part-time; graduates are eligible to enter the Diploma, 2nd year. 2. 2 years part-time; graduates are eligible to enter the Masters. 3. 3 years part-time.
Entrance Requirements	Undergraduate degree in any field, but preferably in counselling, health, welfare or equivalent. Preference will be given to applicants currently directly involved as supervisors	Relevant Undergraduate degree and appropriate work experience	Degree in helping professions or equivalent experience	Tertiary qualifications in relevant disciplines, working in a context which will utilise systems techniques. Provision for unqualified/experienced practitioner-RPL.	Previous degree and experience in a related discipline.
Qualification/Certification	Eligibility for VAFT clinical membership Graduate Certificate in Systemic Supervision, Consultation and Training	Master of Clinical Family Therapy	Graduate Diploma in Family Therapy (Clinical Practice)	An Advanced Training in Applied Systems Theory and Family Therapy. (Graduate Diploma Equivalent)	1. Faculty Certificate. 2. Graduate Diploma. 3. Master of Family Centred Practice.
Cost	$4200	$9600	$2530 per year	Year 1: $2420.00 Year 2: $2420.00	Certificate: $4500. Diploma: $8000. Masters: $12,000 These fees are tax deductible, compare well to HECS fees, which are not. PELS (Postgraduate Education Loans Scheme) provides low cost loans to students.
Key Teaching Staff	Banu Moloney, Amaryll Perlesz	Robyn Elliott, Colin Riess, Ron Findlay, Banu Moloney, Cate Ingram, Greg U'Ren, (plus experienced Bouverie Staff clinical supervisors)	Harvey Miller, Peter Cantwell, Annette Woodhouse	Director of Training: Claire Miran-Khan	Barbara Fraser. Authors: Joe Tucci, Danny Chable, Tonya Miles, Syndon Barabash
Special Features	First formalised training in family therapy supervision in Australia	4 hours live supervision per week. Advanced family therapy theory and practical clinical applications to a wide range of family problems. Evaluation of family therapy research and incorporating research findings into clinical practice. Can claim some of the live supervision component towards clinical membership of VAFT. (Opportunities may be available on completion of a Postgraduate Diploma in Family Therapy or equivalent to upgrade their qualification to the Master of Clinical Family Therapy)	Accredited VAFT Training Program	Advanced Theory: overview of all major schools and scientific metaphors utilised in Family Therapy. Special focus: Bateson and Maturana. Case presentations. Video interviews of the 'Masters'. Practice sessions of techniques. Development of individual models. Practice & Supervision through casework presentations. 'Reflective Journal'. Client contact, further reading, supervision and attendance at approved workshop(s).	Distance education; weekend schools; supervised practice; online training; family therapist in context research; training for specialist clinical practice.
Are other learning opportunities provided? <small>(e.g., workshops)</small>	Live supervision of supervision		Includes didactic elements and live clinical workshops.	Professional Library is available. Workshops provided or recommended.	Specialist instructors; weekend training.
Enquiries	Banu Moloney Ph: +61 3 9376 9844	Robyn Elliott, Coordinator Ph: +61 3 9376 9844 Email: r.elliott@latrobe.edu.au	Harvey Miller Ph: +61 3 5633 2482 Fax: +61 3 5633 2964 Email: GileadDowns@m150.aone.net.au	Claire Miran-Khan Ph: +61 3 9754 6913 Fax: +61 3 9754 4990 Email: clairemirankhan@connexus.com.au	Monash University on +61 3 9902 6339 or 03 5122 6339. Email: humass.info@arts.monash.edu.au bafraser@bigpond.com

Training Programs

cont.

2005

	New Zealand	Queensland	South Australia	Western Australia
Name of Program	Family & Couples Therapy: Introductory Theory & Practice	Family Therapy Training (Foundations, Intermediate, Advanced)	Graduate Diploma of Mental Health (Family Therapy)	Professional Practice Certificate in Individual Couple and Family Therapy, and Professional Practice Diploma in Individual Couple and Family Therapy	William Street Family Therapy Centre Family & Marital Therapy Course	Graduate Course in Systemic Family Therapy
Auspice	University of Canterbury School of Education	Solutions un-Limited, New Zealand	The University of Queensland, School of Medicine	Bower Place	William Street Family Therapy Centre, 544 William St, Mt Lawley WA 6050	Family Pathways, Perth
Length <small>(if part-time, indicate how time is allocated)</small>	44 hours, Mid. Nov 05–Early Feb.06. (Summer School), approx 4 contact hours per week.	3 x five-day courses, held in Auckland and other NZ sites per year	2-year part-time	1 to 2 year course	2 year course: Stage 1 Introduction to Family Therapy (40 wks at 5hrs/wk) Stage 2 Advanced Training (40 wks at 5hrs/wk) This course will be held in Mt Lawley, and in Bunbury in 2006.	1 to 2 year course: foundation and advanced levels. 5 hours per week for 40 weeks per year. Total of 200 hours per level.
Entrance Requirements	Relevant undergraduate degree	Appropriate work experience and/or training in mental health or counselling	Recognised health profession degree or equivalent, at least 2 years experience of clinical practice and be working in a practice environment that is suitable for family therapy	For psychologists, social workers, counsellors, medical practitioners, nurses, occupational therapists and other health professionals	Completion of basic training in the helping professions.	Graduate qualifications in Social Work, Psychology, Counselling, Nursing, Medicine, and other health professionals
Qualification/Certification	Certificate of Proficiency or credit towards Master's Degree	Certificate of Completion	Graduate Diploma of Mental Health (Family Therapy)	Professional Practice Certificate in Individual Couple and Family Therapy (1 year) and Professional Practice Diploma in Individual Couple and Family Therapy (2 years)	Certificate of completion of each stage of course.	Certificate of completion. Eligibility for Accreditation pending
Cost	Approx $NZ860	$575 + GST for 5 day course	Full cost $9600. FEE-HELP support available	Professional Practice Certificate $3410 Professional Practice Diploma $7300	$2750 each year of 2-year course $693 for each 1-week Intensive course	Year 1: $2500. Year 2: $2500
Key Teaching Staff	Bruce McNatty, Fran Vertue	Richard G. Whiteside	Robert King, Chris Hunt, Graham Martin, Sally Young, Paul Gibney, Peta Briner	Catherine Sanders, Malcolm Robinson, Marten Johns, Rosemary Freney, Nicole Best	Aldo Gurgone, Anne Holloway, Steve Lionello, Jene Moody, Teena Olsen, Rosemary Watkins	Roxanne Garven (Course Director)
Special Features	Includes 2 full day workshops	Comprehensive overview of family therapy models. Pragmatic system for working with families. Cultivation of therapist's unique style.	Queensland Association for Family Therapy recognises this qualification as leading to Clinical Membership.	Year 1: 10-week lecture series explicates the Bower Place method and key schools of family therapy. 20 hours observation of clinical practice; 38 hours supervised clinical practice. 10 x 3 hour workshops on systemic therapy, emphasising the Bower Place Method Year 2: Clinical skills development 114 hours working directly with clients of the Low Fee Research Clinic. Students develop supervision skills. 10 x 3 hour workshops on approaches to complex problems and symptoms. Individually negotiated block placements for advanced local and interstate practitioners.	1 week intensive training in Family and Marital Therapy. Level 1 and Level 2 courses held twice per year both in Mt Lawley and Bunbury. Combination of basic systems theory, and live supervision to implement theory in practice, using reflecting teams.	Systemic and Social constructionist approaches. Supervised clinical practicum with clients from the course's low fee counselling service. Video review of clinical practice. Exploration of the influences of the participants' beliefs and context on the therapist–client relationship. Systemic practice in the public sector. Single Session Therapy. Supervision and consultation skills for the Year 2 participants
Are other learning opportunities provided? <small>(e.g., workshops)</small>	A follow-on field-based practical paper is to be introduced in 2006.	A range of custom-tailored courses and one-day workshops.	Workshops form the major training component in year 2. Live supervision in year 1.	Clinical research in association with the Department of Psychology, Adelaide University. Access to the videotape library collected since 1981.	Some workshops provided	Workshops provided. Individual supervision
Enquiries	Assoc. Professor Bob Manthei, Course Administrator, University of Canterbury, Christchurch. Ph +64 3 364 2266; Email: bob.manthei@canterbury.ac.nz	Frances Steinberg Ph: + 64 04 293 3434, Email: solun@xtra.co.nz	Further Information: Judith Langton Ph: +61 7 3365 5143 Website: www.uq.edu.au	Contact us at www.bowerplace.com.au Ph: (08) 8221 6066 Fax: (08) 8221 6061 Email: catherine@bowerplace.com.au	Aldo Gurgone Ph: +61 9 227 8038 Fax: +61 9 227 8938	Roxanne Garven, Email: rgarven@iinet.net.au Ph: + 61 8 9389 9064

